Italy

- 7 D'Villa Sandi Prosecco Spumante, Brut DOC 200ml Bottle £11.50
Villa Sandi estate which dates back to 1622, is owned by the Moretti Pologato family, and is situated in Valdobbiadene, in the heart of the DOCG Prosecco area. Very pale straw yellow and fine persistent bubbles. The aroma is fruity and flowery with hints of ripe golden apple and small mountain flowers. The dry, fresh and flavoursome sensation on the palate is followed by a fruity and harmonious after-taste.
- 8 Prosecco De Dei Mare Brut DOC N.V. £31.00
Made using Glera, a late ripening grape variety from the Veneto region of North East Italy. From the best vineyards around the village of Valdobbiadene. A pale straw colour with typical fruit characters of apple, ripe pear and richer notes of pieapple. Perfect as an aperitif or with antipasta

9 Sachetto Pinot Grigio 'Blush' Rosé Spumante N.V. £34.00
 100% Pinot Grigio. Soft pressing of the grapes with brief skin contact is used to impart pale colour. Served chilled it is ideal as an aperitif or an accompaniment to hor d'oeuvres, light dishes and fish based dishes. Fine and continuous bubbles, this dry sparkling wine is fruity and appealing with floral and fresh fruity bouquet.

England

10 Nyetimber Classic Cuveé 2009 West Sussex £65.00
 Since their original plantings of classic varieties in 1988, Nyetimber has established itself as England's premier sparkling wine house, making world class wines to rival and often beat in blind tastings, the big names of Champagne. A beguilingly Champagne-like nose of citrus fruit, brioche and shortbread, the mousse is finely pearled, soft, yet mouth-filling and persistent. Elegantly shaped and supremely poised.

Special Occasion Magnums

France

11 "Magnum" Laurent-Perrier Brut NV Champagne £170.00
 A casual glance down the list of the prominent names of Champagne will before long reveal Laurent-Perrier as one of the leading lights. Again and again. With its impeccable credentials Laurent-Perrier is an instantly recognisable byword for quality and its NV (non-vintage; or you could say "normal version") is delicate yet complex, fresh yet well balanced, rich and well-defined. The Magnum is regarded by connoisseurs as being the best way to drink Champagne!

12 "Magnum" Chateaufort de Pape Calice de St-Pierre 2012 Rhone £120.00
 Domaine des Peres de L'Eglise Le Calice de Saint Pierre is made from 95% old vine Grenache, 3% Mourvedre and 2% Syrah. Dark in colour with rich, round, lush textures, loads of peppery, black raspberry, kirsch, thyme and spice, that feels great on your palate. The wine is made from old vine Grenache that comes from vines that are more than 100 years old.

Spain

13 "Magnum" Coto de Imaz Reserva 2010 Rioja £72.00
 El Coto de Rioja Coto de Imaz Reserva is 100% Tempranillo sourced from estate vineyards in the Rioja Alta. This Reserva displays complex, red berry aromas with smoky . vanilla notes. On the palate there's round, warm and juicy spiced redcherry fruit with a velvety character, and ripe tannins are apparent as a firm but pliant structure. The wine's suavetannins and acidity will help the wine mature very well in the bottle.

Australia

14 "Magnum" Angus the Bull Cabernet Sauvignon Blanc £68.00
 Winemaker Hamish MacGowan has set out to make the perfect wine to accompany beef, in homage to Angus the Bull. We think he's done just that - try it and see what you think! "Another Howitzer in a succession of Blockbuster Cabernets by young winemaker, Hamish McGowan and what a thumpingly fabulous wine this is. Dark purple, juicy, slightly smoky and spicy red with lovely, pure Cabernet flavours, generously swamped in blackberries and redcurrants and a wonderfully rich, creamy finish." "As ever, the wine is competently made, competitively priced, and in this wonderful vintage rises well above its station in life." James Halliday Wine Companion 2015, 93 points.

Whites

France

15 Domaine de Vedilhan Viognier Pays d'Oc 2017 Honeysuckle and apricot on the nose; richly textured and nicely balanced with flavours of apricot and a satisfying delicate bitterness on the finish.	Languedoc	£25.00
16 Macon Village Blanc "Les Pierres Blanche" Cave de Lugny 2015 The majority of the fruit for this wine has been grown around the village of Loché, South West of Mâcon in Southern Burgundy. Fresh and clean, this wine displays fantastic purity of fruit with subtle hints of pear and green apple on the nose and a crisp mineral finish.	Burgundy	£26.00
17 Picpoul de Pinet 'Les Courtelles' 2016 Made from grapes close to the Mediterranean shore, this is bone dry on the palate with a distinctive combination of nuttiness, peach fruit and minerality. The perfect wine for oysters, shellfish and all seafood.	Languedoc	£29.00
18 Chablis Domaine Savary 2015 The Savarys have finally earned the recognition for their hard work and are highly regarded in the appellation. Their exquisite wines are quintessential Chablis with unmistakable aromas of ancient crushed shells and a pronounced, racy mineral structure.	Burgundy	£48.00
19 Sancerre Domaine Des Clairneaux 2015 Produced by talented Vigneron Jean-Marie Berthier the Domaine des Clairneaux wines are real examples of elegant expressive Sancerre. It's a delicious, stylish, balanced with a beautiful perfume and a fine, mineral structure. Quite a ripe style with a tropical fruit centre along with pear and apple. Zesty but ripe acidity and lovely minerality punctuated by a clean, long finish anchors it firmly in Sancerre!	Loire	£48.00
20 Montagny 1er Cru Bonnerveaux Olivier Leflaive 2014 Olivier Leflaive is one of Burgundy's most respected wine producers, offering wines of exceptional quality, consistency and style from village appellations and cru and vineyards across the legendary Côte d'Or. Concentrated and rich while retaining the attractive freshness and bite characteristic, Bonnerveaux exudes white flower perfume and fresh orchard fruit. Concentrated and rich in flavour, as premier cru, the wine nevertheless retains attractive freshness. An absolute Wow at every dinner table, guaranteed to impress!	Burgundy	£47.00
21 Pouilly-Fuissé Terriers de Fuissé Sélection, Christopher Cordier 2016 Made from grapes sourced from the finest vineyard sites around the village of Fuissé, this wine undergoes a traditional vinification with half of the wine fermented in large oak 'fûts' or barrels giving the wine its classic, toasty finish. This richness is balanced by tropical pineapple flavours and crisp citrus acidity.	Burgundy	£50.00
22 Meursault "Les Tillet" Domain Alain Patraiche 2011 Alain's family has been making wine in Meursault since 1830. This Meursault has a certain elegance, a pronounced mineral character with a touch of vivacity coated fat. The structure is very straight, full, with an angular-like, floral aroma. Powerful and long nose, thick mouth and a good length combine with very dry fruits. A bit rustic but very tasty.	Burgundy	£70.00
23 Puligny-Montrachet, Jean-Louis Chavy 2013 Lovely light colour with a little touch of primrose. Soft and floral nose, quite attractive, very good fruit through the middle, a nice little touch of minerals and good length. A lovely single vineyard Puligny.	Burgundy	£72.00

| 30 The Whale Watcher Sauvignon Blanc 2015
Perfumed with nettle ripe tropical fruits which are also evident on the palate along with limey flavours and a rich minerality - classic Marlborough Sauvignon. The wine is sappy fresh, clean and delicious. | Marlborough | £27.00 |
| 31 Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2016
Zesty lime and grapefruit aromas are the first to emerge from the nose followed by nectarine and lemongrass tones. The palate is fresh and focused with ripe citrus, stone fruit, fennel and mineral notes lingering on the persistent finish. | Marlborough | £55.00 |

Chile

- 32 Camino de la Cabana Sauvignon Blanc 2016 Valle Central £21.00
A fresh and crisp wine with ripe citrus fruit. Packed with lime zest, lemon and kiwi fruit flavours. Think of cool glacial streams and enjoy the refreshing, racy acidity on the finish.
- 33 Los Vascos Chardonnay 2015 Casablanca £31.00
Most will have heard of Château Lafite - "Bordeaux's most famous property" (Robert Parker) - but few know of its sister estate in Chile. The revered US critic praised Los Vascos for turning out "classy, elegant, stylish wines". Baron Eric de Rothschild visited Chile in the early 1980s and was so impressed with Los Vascos that he bought it in 1988. The winemaking team there isn't confined to making fine reds - they also produce terrific whites. This crisp, fruit and mineral laden Chardonnay is from the cool of Casablanca - one of Chile's finest white wine regions. Warm days and cold nights results in ripe fruit still with plenty of stony zip and aroma.

USA

- 34 Chronic Cellars Eunice X 2015 Paso Robles California £40.00
Light yellow colour. Honey, almonds and yellow flower aromas on top of apricot and yellow apple. On the palate, this shows a creamy, waxy texture but some solid acid keeps it balanced. Apricots, yellow plums, bruised apple, the fruit is backed up with some floral white tea and honeycomb elements. Straight up fun but some nice balance and diversity of flavours. A blend of 75% Chardonnay, 14% Viogier, 8% Rousanne and 3% Marsanne.
- 35 Chronic Cellars Stone Fox 2015 Paso Robles California £52.00
A stone cold fox! This sleek white blend offers some come-hither flavours of pineapple, coconut, fresh orange blossom and a splash of mango. The body is juicy, for sure, but there is a depth to this fox once you get to know her. 41% Grenache Blanc, 37% Viongier and 22% Picpoul.

England

- 36 Sharpham Dart Valley Reserve 2016 South Devon £38.00
Fresh elderflower and meadow aromas are abundant on the nose with hints of peach and apple fruit. The palate is off dry with gorgeous ripe stone fruit flavours and pleasingly, gentle, well balanced acidity. The finish is clean, long and incredibly more-ish.
Gold - Sommelier Wine Awards 2018

Rosé

France

- 37 Richmonds Rose Vin de Pay L'Ardeche 2016 Languedoc £22.00
Bright salmon pink; very similar to the fresh but warm styles found in Provence. Refined and complex on the nose with summer fruit and floral notes. Dry and crisp with a delicate flavour and full texture. The perfect summer quatter.
- 38 Boutinot 'Les Cerisiers' Côte du Rhone Rosé 2016 Rhône £28.00
An elegant, truly gastronomic rosé. A classic salmon pink rosé with delicate perfumed aromas of rosehip syrup, wild berry blossoms and cherries on the nose. Full flavoured, ripe and beautifully balanced with acidity, there's elegant textured berry fruit on the palate with a twist of raspberry freshness to lift the finish. Deliciously balanced and more-ish.

Italy

- 39 Sanvigilio Pinot Grigio Rosato Provincia Di Pavia £22.00
The elegant bouquet displays peach flavours. Dry, soft and well balanced on the palate with round and full bodied structure.

Reds

France

- 40 Carignan Vieilles Vignes Mont Rocher 2015 Southern France £26.00
Juicy cherry red colour. Abundance of red berry fruit and hints of vanilla on the nose. Soft on the palate, fully flavoured with a smooth easy drinking finish. Ideal with casseroles and roast beef.
Gold Medal Winner - Sommelier Wine Awards
- 41 Pierre Henri Merlot, Pays d'Oc 2015 Languedoc £26.00
This is a beautifully made wine that significantly over delivers. Excellent depth of flavour with delicious, rounded plum and damson flavours and gentle acidity and tannin to maintain balance and freshness.
- 42 Côte du Rhône "Les Sablières" Domiane Des Escaravilles 2014 Rhône £32.00
A Grenache dominated blend at 70%, the Les Sablières begins to feel a bit more of "Northern Rhône" with an intense meaty, peppery nose; however the lavender garrigue and raspberry that personifies Southern Rhône are there as well. There in spades in fact with a wonderful raspberry/peppery tension on the palate that supports and carries the richer fruit beautifully. Sourced from 40 to 50 year old Grenache and 30 to 40 year old Syrah vines planted in sandy clay and limestone over river rock, the vineyards are predominantly on the Rasteau estate with the rest coming from estate parcels just next door in Cairanne. Les Sablières is a very intense and pure expression of the Rhone Valley.
- 43 Crozes Hermitage, Cave de Tain 'Origine 1933' 2015 Rhône £48.00
A beautiful Syrah with delicate red fruits. Well balanced and roud plummy and typical peppery notes. Beautifully structured with a twist of smokey spice and green olives on the finish.
- 44 Château Laville Bertrou, Minervois-a-la Livinière, Gérard Bertrand 2013 Minervois West Languedoc £35.00
Only recognised as an Appellation Controlée in 1998, La Livinière occupies around 200 hectares in the North West of Minervois. A blend of Syrah, Grenache and Carignan, it is an immensely robust and concentrated wine with a firm backbone of red and black fruits and heady wafts of heathland shrubs and pepper on the nose. Muscular tannins provide weight and length.

45 Château Caronne St Gemme, Haut Medoc 1998 Chateau Caronne St Gemme is situated on the border of St Laurent du Medoc, neighbour to St Julien. The 1998 vintage was always a wine that would need time, but amazingly this still has plenty of life ahead of it and it is drinking really well now. Deep fruit on the nose, ripe and lovely perfume with a hint of spice but still with freshness. The palate is well balanced, has good richness and nice integrated tannins, red fruits and plenty of life. Classic Caronne character.	Bordeaux	£48.00
46 Château La Tour de Buy 2009 This cracking château has been punching above its weight for many years. The blend comprises 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 33% Merlot and 2% Cabernet Franc. The wine is fermented in traditional wooden vats in a temperature controlled chai, with a 4 week cuvaision before aging for 16 months in new 3 year old barriques. Fragrant, forward and typical of the estate, this wine shows remarkable presence and breeding in the glass with layers of complex smoky black fruits, herbs, graphite and cassis - a long, quite succulent style edged with a firmness that tells of its ageing potential. A very good claret at a bargain price - with the likes of Robert Parker, Decanter and Janis Robinson all being firm followers. Delicious with grilled meats, especially rib-eye, Chateaubriand, sirlion, all plainly cooked and partnered simply, beef casserole or roast chicken.	Bordeaux	£52.00
47 Château Rauzan-Ségla Margaux 2012 Ségla is the second wine from the famous Margaux second growth. A wine with excellent concentration and poise showing notes of ripe fruits, violets and cedar with beautiful length and delicate tannins.	Bordeaux	£59.00
48 La Reserve de Leoville Barton, St Julien 2011 From the gravelly dunes of Léoville-Barton's vineyards, leading down to the bank of the Gironde, La Réserve is the second wine of this famous property. As an earlier drinking version of the grand vin, this is real value for money. With a classic 'left bank' nose of smoky, blackberry fruit and pencil lead, the palate is rich and rounded with assertive tannins, ample fruit and well integrated oak. Serve with shoulder of lamb braised in wine. Drinking well at the moment, but will keep for another 5 or so years.	Bordeaux	£84.00

49 Gevrey-Chambertin, Domaine Rossignol-Trapet 2006/2009 The Trapet family have been making wine for over a century. In 1990 Jacques Rossignol and his two sons by Mado Trapet created the Domain Rossignol-Trapet located in Gevrey-Chambertin. They own vineyards in villages deemed to be the side that are: Beaune and Savigny - the Beaune, Gevrey-Chambertin of course. From a premier cru vineyard just below grand cru Chapelle Chambertin, this is a graceful, deliciously perfumed wine with a finely wound structure and an excellent sense of precision right down to the long mineral finish. Intensely seductive nose of raspberries, cherries and figs with hints of chocolate and vanilla.	Burgundy	£90.00
Italy
50 Primitivo IGT Miopasso 2016 Intense yet elegant, smooth and with great structure, fragrant notes of loganberry and blackberry with lovely undertones of spice and black pepper and a long finish. Different vineyards from both Sicily and Puglia have been handpicked for their quality and characteristics which best suit specific indigenous grape varieties. Sicily and Puglia can produce wines of great quality and exceptional value - the warm climates of both lead to full bodied wines with great fruit, richness and approachability.	Puglia & Sicily	£25.50
51 il Valpolicella Superior DOC La Collina Dei Cilegi 2013 Deep ruby red colour with purple highlights. The nose has pronounced aromas of berries with notes of vanilla and spices. Dry, delicate, savoury and harmonious on the palate. Goes well with grilled meats and mature cheeses, Served chilled it is wonderful with freshwater fish such as trout.	Vento	£44.00
52 Chianti Classico Riserva DOCG Castello Di Verrazzano 2012 Produced only in the top vintages, the "Riserva" is one of the most representative wines of the winery and best expresses the varietal characteristics of Sangiovese. Intense ruby colour and bright with light garnet reflections. Focused acidity despite the gently aged blur of spice and fruit. Long elegant finish that entwines itself around the tongue. Elegant taste which expresses itself in excellent depth.	Tuscany	£48.00
53 Barolo Ciabot Berton 2010 From a small estate around the Roggeri vineyard, this Barolo has a splendid ruby red colour characteristic of the wine. With high acidity and fleshy tannins it exhibits classic aromas of rose petals, tar and high levels of plummy fruit.	Piemonte	£57.00
54 L'Amorone Della Valpolicella DOCG La Collina Dei Cilegi 2012 Deep ruby red colour with nuances of garnet. On the nose, the sweet accents of Maraschino cherries and jam are replaced by a spicy aroma and delicate final notes of leather and tobacco. Generous on the palate with a velvet smooth body yet elegant and strong with a balanced ending.	Vento	£75.00
55 Frescobaldi Casteligiocondo Brunello Di Montalcino 2010 Made from the finest Sangiovese grapes grown within a single vineyard site, the Casteligiocondo is a brilliant wine that truly has excelled in 2010. James Suckling describes the wines as "best ever" produced and awarded it a hugely impressive 97 points placing it among the elite of this phenomenal year. Suckling went on to name it Wine of the Year 2015. Aromas of warm stones, dark fruits and soft and walnuts follow a full body, tannins, and a savoury finish. This shows ripe fruit, salty undertones that give it a wonderful juiciness.	Frescobaldi	£90.00

| 61 The Wolftrap Boekenhoutskloof 2015
When the farm was founded, the Franschoek valley was far wilder than it is today - as the wolf trap they once discovered goes to show. The Wolftrap is a rich, deep red blend that includes Syrah, Mourvèdre and Viognier. Grapes from this increasingly popular blend are sourced from selected vineyards in the Swartland. Small berries from dry land vines provide intense spicy flavours with integrated, balanced tannins. A slight hint of perfume from the Viognier adds to the harmony. Rich opulent flavours of dark fruit, violets, black pepper and liquorice. Round and smooth on the palate with a lingering soft finish. Hints of oak, soft tannins and voluptuous flavour makes for early, easy drinking. | Swartland | £25.00 |

Lebanon

64 Château Masur Gaston Hochar 2009

Lebanese wine might seem obscure, but viticulture roots in Lebanon go back over 6000 years. Château Musar is a uniquely different wine from the Bekaa Valley, produced by master winemaker Serge Hochar. Concentrated plum and blackberry fruit, hints of fig, prune, distinct liquorice and spice. Firm but fine tannins, good acidity and body, vibrant and fresh with streaks of cedar and cinnamon and a long finish. Château Musar will last for decades and can be enjoyed with everything from French-style roast lamb to North-African cuisine.
